Diocesan Teacher Education Scholarships and Grants

For persons interested in the ministry of teaching

The Anglican Church is inviting our young people to consider teaching as a vocation.

The church is associated with over 100 schools ranging from early childhood to tertiary institutions.

These schools are in need of Anglican teachers who will pursue excellence in teaching and instil the values of the church in students in our institutions.

It is our desire that these teachers will give both spiritual and moral guidance to both students and staff and be confident in identifying themselves as Anglicans.
