

If Jesus Came To My House

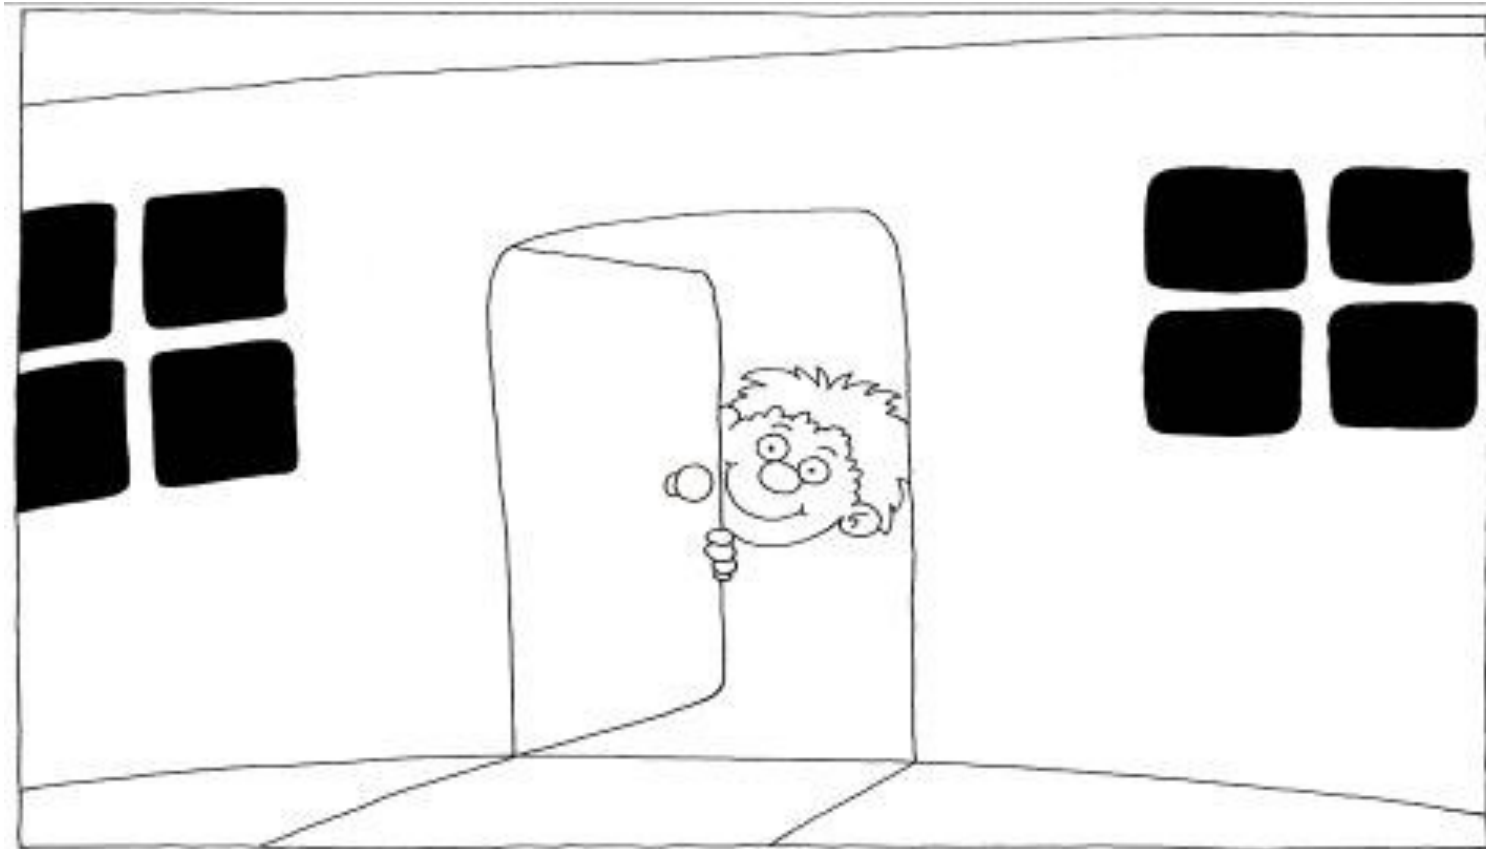

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

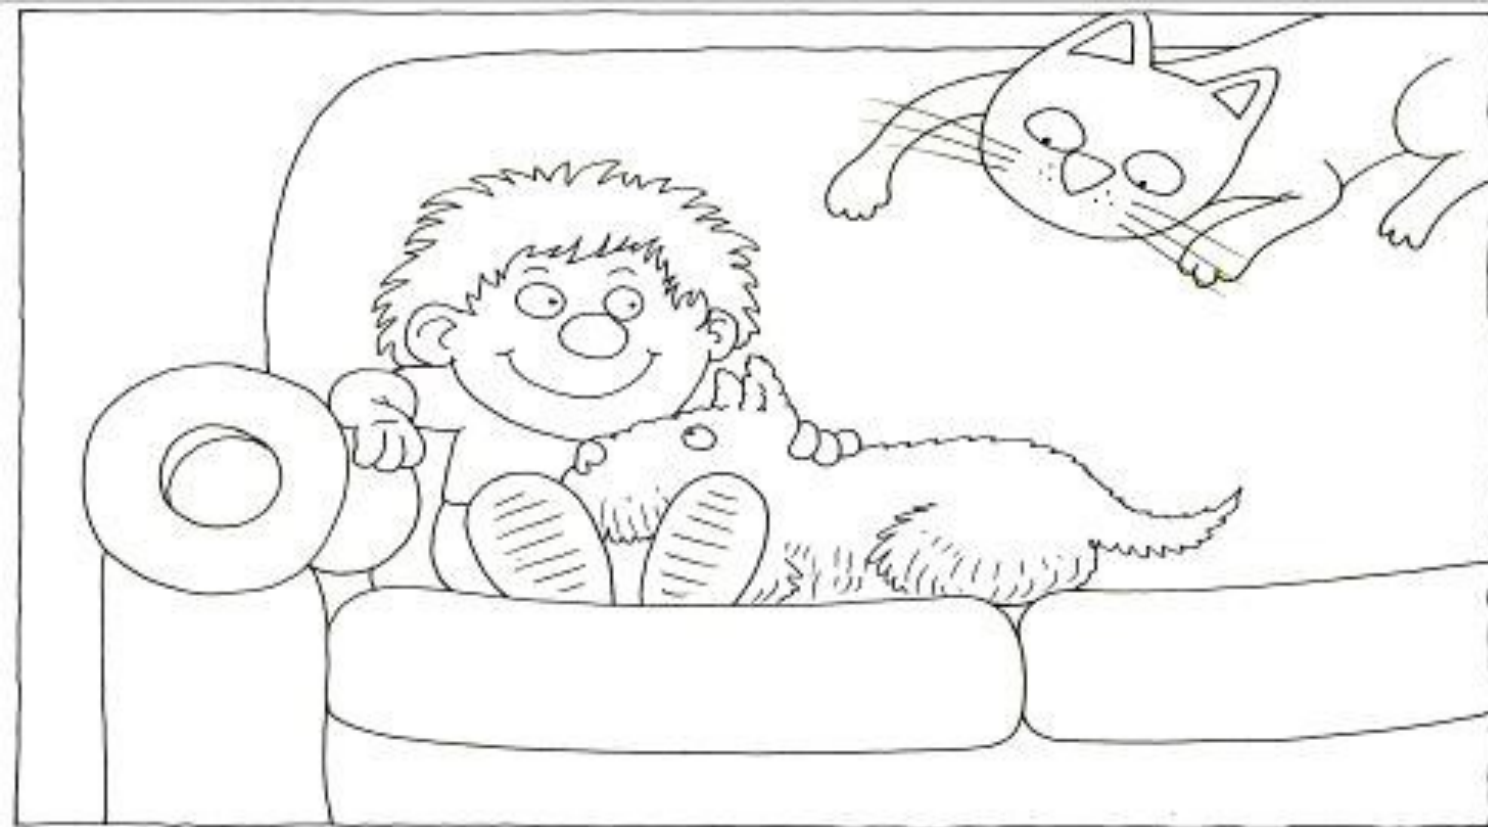

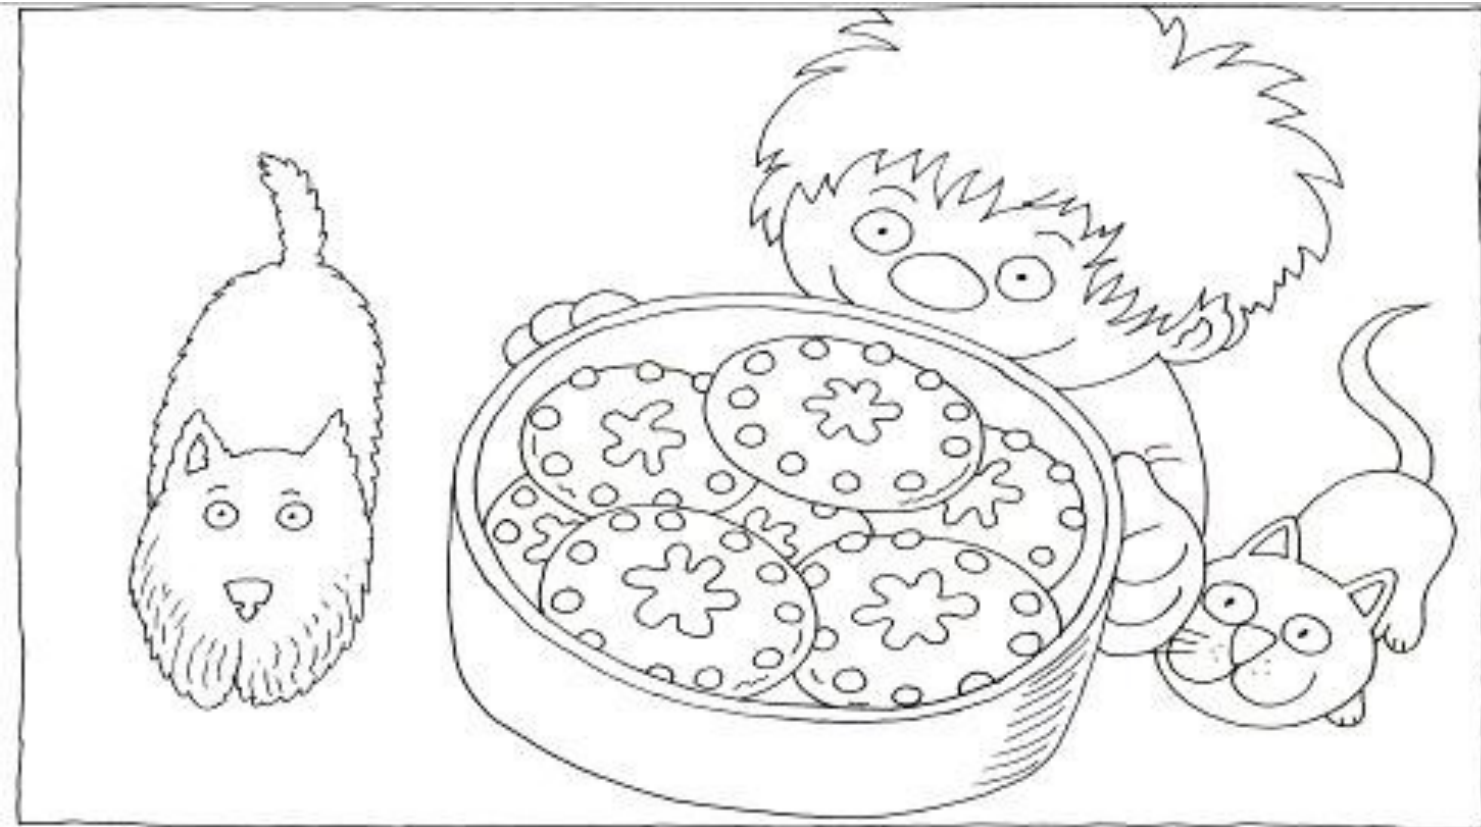

If Jesus was coming to my house, I would tidy my room and get everything ready. I would feel so excited!

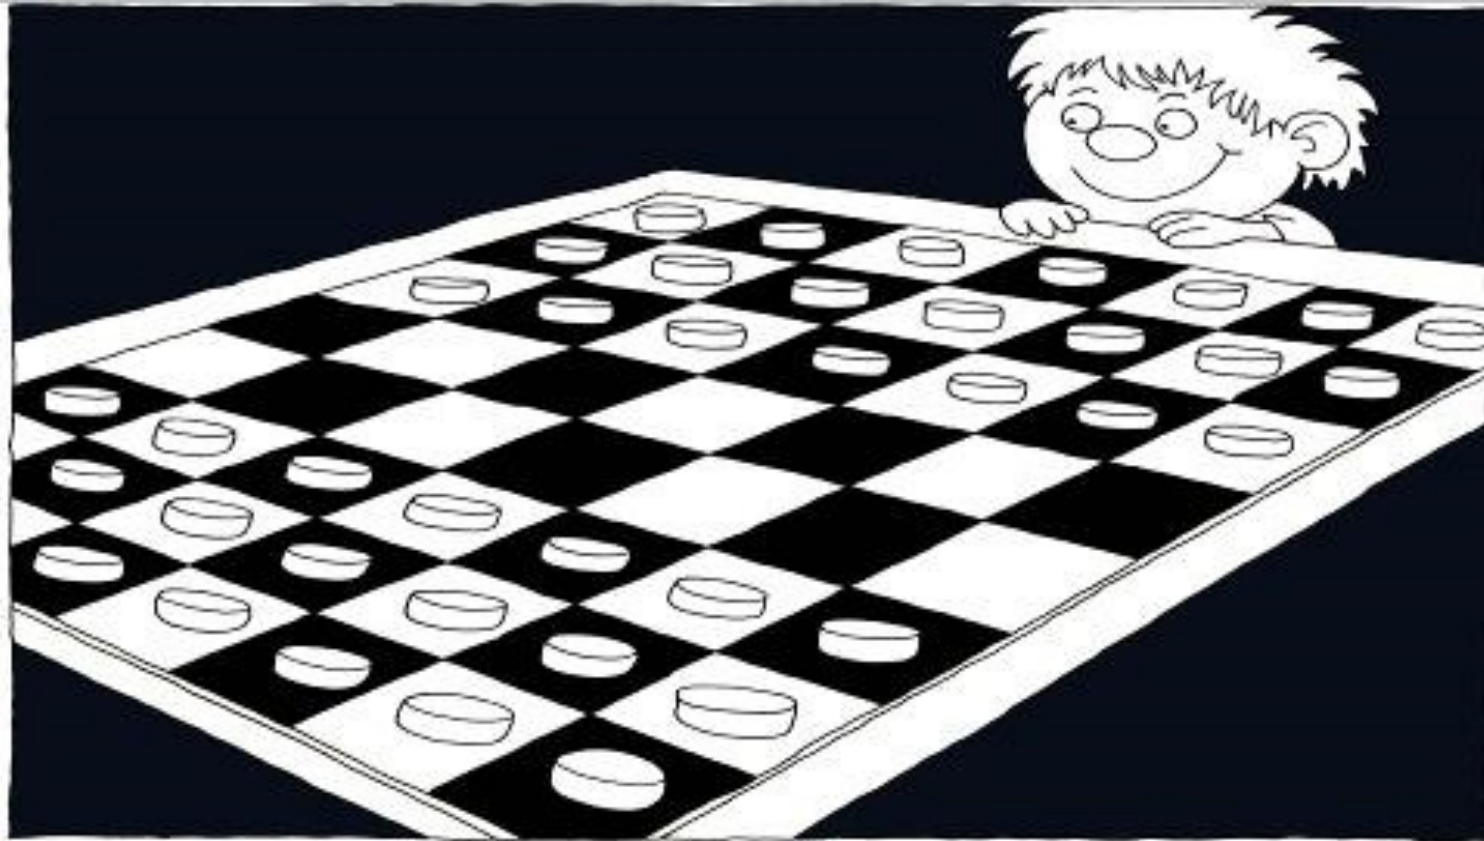

Jesus would knock on the door and wait. As soon as I heard Him knocking I would open the door, straight away and ask Him to come inside.

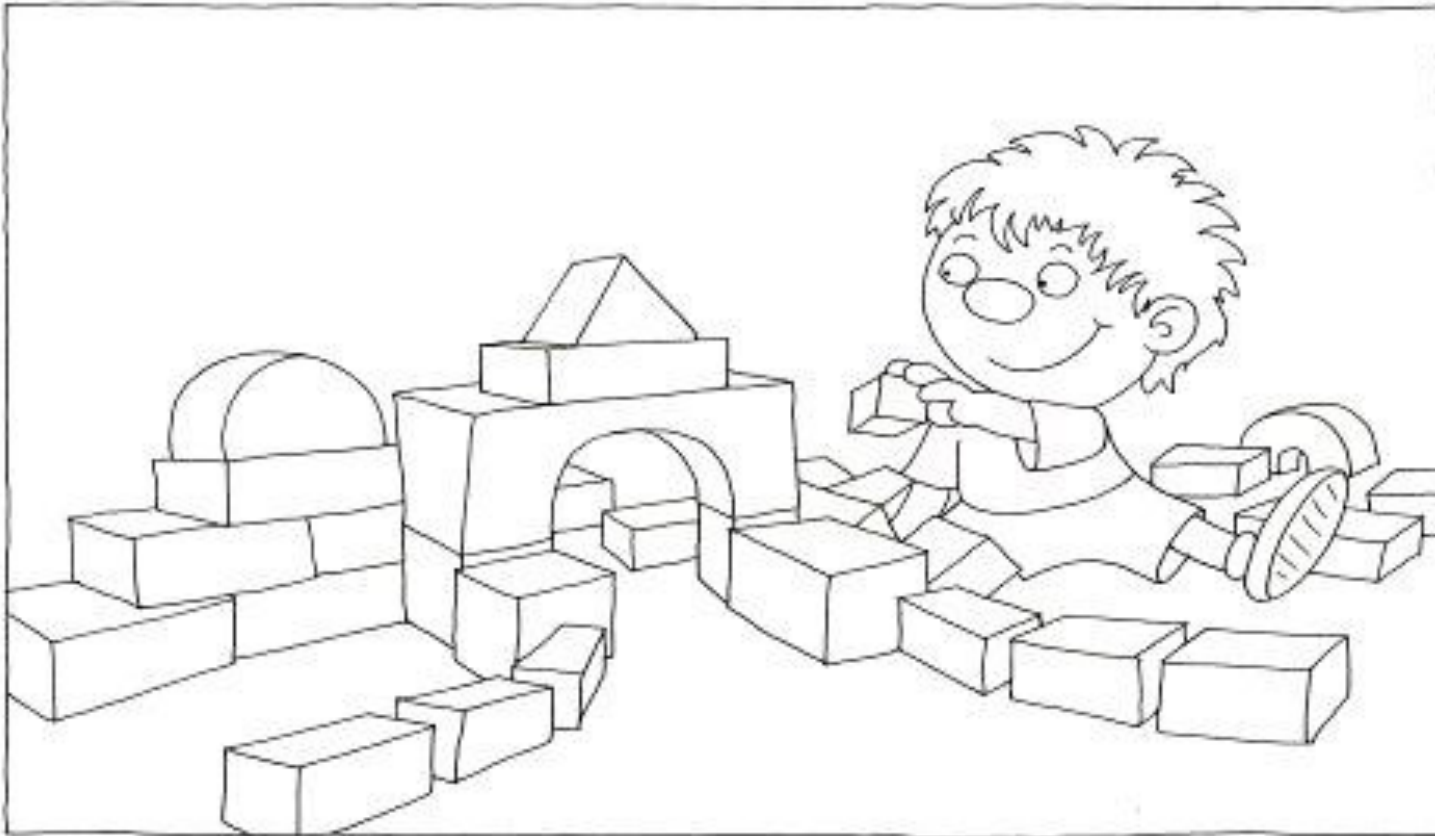

I would give Jesus the best seat and I would listen to everything Jesus said. He is my very best friend.

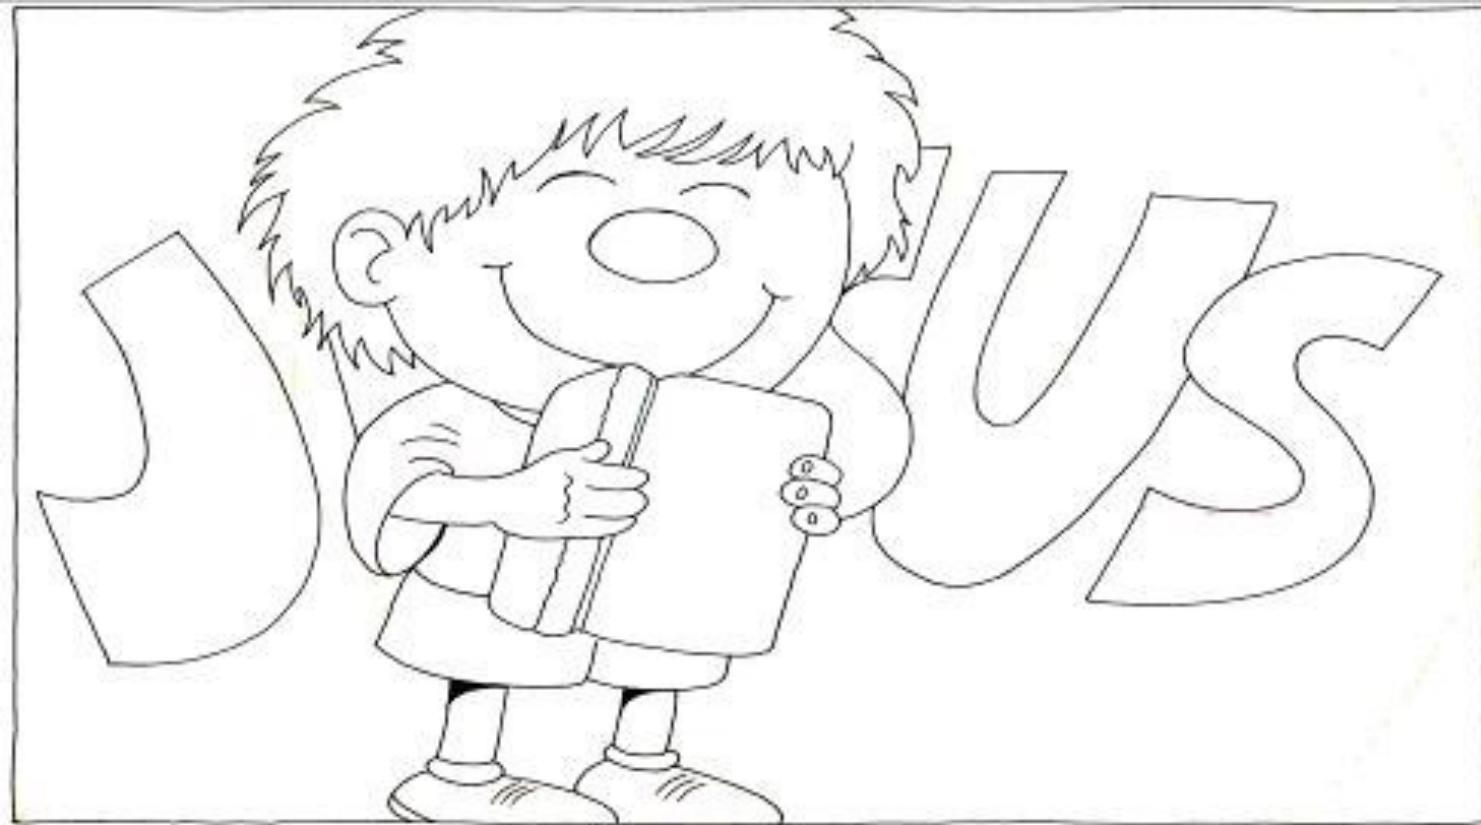

I would get Jesus something nice to eat and use good manners.
We would laugh a lot together. I would never be grumpy.

When we played games I would play fair and never mind if I didn't win. It would be fun to play with my friend Jesus.

I would let Jesus play with my best toys!
Even the ones I got for my birthday. Jesus likes it when I share.

The Bible says that Jesus wants me be kind to others, just like I would be kind and share with Him. I want to be kind just like Jesus.
