

John told the people: "Stop doing wrong things and tell God you are sorry. Start being good today." Some people were sorry and wanted to change.

Those people went down to the river Jordan. John baptized them in the water, to show they were going to do what was good and right from now on.